

GREAT GREAT GREAT GRANDCHILDREN DREAMING: LIVE CALL RECORDED

Taking Responsibility, Seeding the Future

Be the Change Now

New Moon: January 17, 2018 at 1.17pm (AEDT)

On the New Moon January 17, 2018 at 1.17 pm AEDT, we journeyed to meet the Great Great Great Grandchildren – to receive from them information about what we need to do and how we need to be now, in order to change birth in our world, so mothers and fathers are empowered and babies are born gently.

Journey with the Recording

Here is the recording of the call and guided shamanic drum journey to meet the Great-Great-Great-Grandchildren!

“These are desperate times and they call on us all to do whatever we can to heal the wounded feminine and wounded masculine of our patriarchal culture.”

“The experiences that participants have had in this process so far include receiving specific detailed instructions about what to do within their own lives and their sphere of influence.”

“Not only will this help us connect with the cold hard fact that what we are doing right now will influence the future our Great Great Great Grandchildren arrive into. It also helps us with that often-felt overwhelm of ‘what can I do?’”

“Your Great Great Great Grandchildren will tell you!”
